

Empowerments for Student Learning

Exclusively for Adjuncts

Honoring active learning and supportive teaching environments in a changing paradigm of higher education

Expand your knowledge. Broaden your resources. Spark students' inspiration.

Volume 1, Issue 1

It is with open arms we QEP campus liaisons welcome you to our news site—Empowerments for Student Learning Exclusively for Adjuncts.

A wealth of opportunities will unfold over future semesters. We will post recent relevant research and activities to help you to support students in your courses and implement active learning strategies. You will receive new food for thought, updated strategies, innovative learning experiences, and dynamic tips about guiding the development of world-class learners fully prepared to be successful in college and careers.

We are available for individual appointments to discuss various ways to help you move from being the “sage on the stage” to a “guide on the side,” allowing students to accept more responsibility for their own learning. We are willing to come to your class and model various active learning strategies or set up observations where you can watch experienced instructors using active learning techniques in their classes.

Above all, we welcome you to meet and interact with Polk State faculty who are willing to demonstrate, model, and guide you with an unending passion for engaging, active, supportive learning techniques.

Watch for future e-mails with new engaging activities to try in the coming weeks. These will be archived at polkadjunctcentral.wordpress.com to review at any time.

Thank you for your willingness to be a part of our Quality Enhancement Plan. It is truly a time to actively “Celebrate Learning.”

With Best Regards,
